Handmade in Tuscany

Halfway from Siena and Florence, Etrusca is in Colle Val d'Elsa, renowned country for crystal production. Very close to San Gimignano, also mentioned from Dante in the «Divina Commedia» and to the hills of Chianti, in this area can be breathed an air full of vitality. Established in 1990, Etrusca is today a consolidate reality, whose professionalism, commitment and quality allows the Company to be on high level markets of bathroom design, both Italian and foreign. The Company operates on a total area of about 10.000 s.m. of which 4.500 covered with 3 different buildings, where they are carried out the various stages of processing that characterize the final product.
